

MAXWELL FAMILY

1881      86 Belle Vue St. Police Station    Gorton    Manchester

Born

Thomas Maxwell      22yrs      Constable      Ireland
(Nana's only brother)

1901      Police Station      Haslingden

Thomas Maxwell      42yrs      Sergeant

30th Sept. 1905      John St.      Haslingden
Thomas Maxwell      46yrs      Obituary in Haslingden Gazette
Ex Police Sergeant Maxwell enjoyed much popularity by reason of his jovial good nature and uprightness. Served 26 years in Lancashire County Constabulary at Manchester, Colne, Burnley Waterfoot and for the last 7 years in Haslingden. Retired at the end of last year due to bad health caused by Bronchitis worsened lately by Dropsy. Leaves a widow and 5 children and was on superannuation exactly 9 months. The funeral was attended by over 30 policemen, old comrades from all parts of the county, who also furnished the bearers.
Rev. A. Spencer officiated.
Mr. J.J. Hamer arranged

4th June 1913
Emily Maxwell      52yrs      Wife of above died.

27th July 1917      Arras      France

David Allan Maxwell      20yrs      Son of above killed in action.
Lance Corporal 36604      1st East Lancs.
B: Haslingden enlisted Haslingden (Golders Green?)
Buried Plot B26. Happy Valley Cemetery, Fampoux.
Fampoux is 7km. east of Arras. Cemetery is 5km. south of village along a 2km. track off road to Monchy le Preux.
"Happy Valley" fought in April 1917 during Battle of Arras which 1st East Lancs. were involved in, afterwards they spent over 2 months in trenches near Monchy le Preux.
Three soldiers killed on the 27th July 1917, including David Maxwell, and are buried in adjacent graves in a small cemetery (70 burials).